

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	----	-----

Whig and Courier
SONG—LUNDY'S LANE.
[From the New York Tribune.]
In the night hours, long ago,
Gathering on the battle plain,
I know ye how they sought the foe,
Mid the gloom of Lundy's Lane?
Foxy to face the hosts were met,
Heart to heart the lances set;
But a hero's blade was there,
And the foe's blood was there.

Leading through the midnight air,
 See the routed legions fled,
 Where the Scotts battle won the field!
 Know ye how our victories ran,
 Through the trenches of the foe,
 From the stones of San Juan
 To the walls of Mexico?
 How the bomb-shells fell, lordless,
 Night by night on Vera Cruz?
 How, O'er Churubusco's stream,
 The smoke of battle hung?

Waved that sword, with fateful gleam?—
 Still the opposing legions yield,
 Whirled round with the field!
 Lo! o'er myriad plains afar
 That firm hand hath borne its part;
 First in counsel, first in war,
 First in every patriot heart
 Where rose our flag may wave,
 On he leads his legions brave;
 In the hottest of the strife

Shrinking not from danger's way,
Strong, that a sword of flame to wield,
Winning Scott with every field;
With the triumph bravely won,
Like a mantle round him thrown,
He, with no proud deed undone,
[Stands on Victory's heights] alone:
Towering o'er all heads that stare
Ere the morning star

Fade all paler lights away--
Vanquished by the glorious day,
Still the opposing ranks must yield;
VINTAGE SCOTCH shall win the field!

BY AUTHORITY.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES
passed during the First Session of the Thirty first Congress.
[PUBLIC ACT—No. 25.]
ACT making an appropriation for the payment of navy pensions for the year ending on the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three:

...the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the pay of many pensions for the year ending thirtieth June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three;
for invalid pensions, forty-five thousand dollars;

(Signed) LENN BORD,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
(Signed) WILLIAM B. KING,
President of the Senate pro tempore.
Approved June 19, 1852.
(Signed) MILLARD FILLMORE,
[Public Act—No. 24.]

...the nineteenth day of January, in the year
...hundred, and forty-nine, approved
...twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and
...it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
...of the United States of America in ...Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the ...Treasury, in discharging the awards made by the
...commissioner under the act "to carry into
...at the Convention between the United States

the Emperor of Brazil, of the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-nine," approved March twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and fifty, which hereby amended, still, in all cases, to which the same shall apply, be governed by the provisions of the eighth section of the act entitled "an act to carry into effect certain stipulations of the treaty between the United States of America and the Republic of Mexico, of the twelfth day of February, eighteen hundred and

[illegible]

...the claims against Brazil,
approved July 3, 1852.

---

FREE! REPORTS THE PEOPLE. That General
ice is bitterly opposed to River and Harbor movements, and invariably voted against when in Congress.

---

That he is opposed to American Industry and American Labor, and in favor of a tariff duty to advance the interests of English capi-

that though living in a State where his jurisdiction is claimed to be omnipotent, Catholics are not allowed to hold office.

That he is opposed to appropriation of public lands towards building Western Railroads, Canadian Plank Roads.

That he voted against appropriation of the land of General Harrison, who was left desolate by the untimely death of her husband, the heavy expenses incurred by his election as office of President and removal to Washington.

He voted against granting pensions to the Revolutionary soldiers:

ANCIENT BRICKS.—A ship's bell, weighing 1,000 lbs., dated 1767, and a large copper boiler, been recently carried to Grand Cay, Turks and Caicos, by some wrecking vessels. They ob-

The Philadelphia Ledger says a seaman's chest containing clothing and six dollars in was found on the Five-Mile beach, at May, on the 20th inst. Papers were found in the chest bearing the name of Warren F. Smith, Walpoleboro, Maine.

